Investment Day Is Scheduled For December 15

Pennies saved, baby-sitting, gardens dedicated to God-All these added up to the magnificent sum of $2,617,443 in the Seventh-day Adventists church's world "Investment" report for last year, according to Mrs. Annie R. Fore, the local investment secretary of the Appomattox, Virginia S.D.A. Church. That was for the "World Field."

"This year," the Investment secretary reports," We think that reports are going to be larger if what is happening in all our churches is any indication of what's going on in "World Fields Everywhere." Some (a number of members; are engaged in projects this year, aimed at raising funds for missions, The church calls activity Investment, because members invest time, energy, materials or other things, with the proceeds received turned in to the church. Mrs. Fore reports that members here have already turned in Investments but not a final figure, as some folks like to wait until they turn in everything at once. Projects under taken by some whose names have not been sent in yet "Investment for God," says Mrs. Fore" Is a delightful experience. Many have seen the smallest amount multiplied a hundredfold under the blessings of "Heaven." Barren fields have suddenly become fruitful. Please remem-
